

Date: 15 July 2014

To All Key Agents

RE: Packing Requirement due to bad weather in MNL

Manila is expecting heavy rains due to the weather disturbance that is expected to hit Metro Manila early morning of 16July'14.

Please ensure to wrap all shipments to MNL with stretch films for added protection.

Kindly disseminate this important message to all concern at your end accordingly.

Please see the below latest weather forecast from PAGASA as of 0500H today.

As Metro Manila including CALABARZON will experience stormy weather, please keep us posted for any flight delays/cancellations that will affect our cargo operations.

For the latest local news about Typhoon "Glenda" you can go to <http://www.pagasa.dost.gov.ph/weather/daily-weather-forecast>.