2. REMINDER: MANDATORY SUBMISSION OF FWB & FHL (IF APPLICABLE) FOR SHIPMENTS ON SQ FLIGHTS EX SIN PRIOR TO LODGE-IN OF CARGO TO GHA.

With reference to several of our earlier Freight Talk and the latest BDM6A01. 062 dated 16 May 2014 on the mandatory submission of FWB and FHL (for all “CONSOL” shipments) for all SQ flights prior to cargo acceptance.

We have received many reports on missing FWB or FHL at destination which not only caused delay in custom clearance but had resulted in custom penalty.

Please be reminded that it is compulsory for Forwarders to send both FWB and FHL together prior to lodge-in of the physical shipment to our Ground Handling Agent (GHA), SATS.

All FWB/FHL sent after SATS triggers the FSU/RCS status update (done after cargo is physically lodged-in) will be rejected by the system. Therefore it is critical for Forwarders to send the messages before the physical shipment is lodged-in -- and also ensure the information in the FWB and FHL are both accurate and complete, otherwise rejections will occur

In addition, please note the following for e-AWB destinations (MC99 countries)

- If agent submit AWB copy to the acceptance counter for handling purposes or for compliance with destination Custom’s requirements, Agent must ensure that the contents of the AWB copy tally with the FWB message.
- If no FWB is received during cargo acceptance even though Agent tenders in a reduced set of AWB, SATS will stop acceptance and advise Agent to send FWB.
- If shipment lodge-in has piece/weight discrepancy between FWB and actual, Agent will be informed to resend correct FWB as well as to amend the hardcopy AWB. For cases where the AWB copy and FWB message are not amended /do not tally, Agent will be responsible for any Custom fine at destination.

Please note that we will recharge to the Agent concerned all penalties imposed by destination customs for missing FWB/FHL messages and data irregularities in the messages.

Please feel free to clarify with your respective Sales Executive should there be any questions on this matter.
